FALL STUDY Begins September 24

Anxiety is at an all time high, but there's a prescription for dealing with it. Max Lucado invites readers into a study of Philippians 4:6-7 where the Apostle Paul admonishes the followers of Christ, "Do not be anxious about anything..."

Pastor's Perspective

In these anxious times we live, our Fall Study will be Max Lucado's "Anxious for Nothing."

About the study: Philippians 4:6 encourages the believer to "be anxious for nothing." As Lucado states, the apostle Paul seems to leave little leeway here. "Be anxious for nothing. Nada. Zilch. Zero."

What's he suggesting? That we should literally be anxious for absolutely nothing? Lucado says, "The presence of anxiety is unavoidable, but the prison of anxiety is optional. It's the life of perpetual anxiety that Paul wants to address. Don't let anything in life leave you perpetually in angst."

Americans especially know about living in perpetual anxiety. According to one research program, anxiety-related issues are the number one mental health problem among women and are second only to alcohol and drug abuse among men. Stress-related ailments cost the nation $300 billion every year in medical bills and lost productivity. And use of sedative drugs like Xanax and Valium have skyrocketed in the last 15 years. Even students are feeling it. One psychologist reports that the average high school kid today has the same level of anxiety as the average psychiatric patient in the early 1950s.

"The news about our anxiety is enough to make us anxious," says Lucado. But there's a prescription for dealing with it. Lucado invites readers into a study of Philippians 4:6-7, the most highlighted passage of any book on the planet, according to Amazon:

Do not be anxious about anything, but in every situation, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God. And the peace of God, which transcends all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.

"With His help you will learn to face the calamities of life. You'll learn how to talk yourself off the ledge. Under the guidance of the Holy Spirit, you will learn to view bad news through the lens of sovereignty; to discern the lies of Satan and tell yourself the truth. You will manifest a gentleness that is evident to others. Anxiety comes with life. But it doesn't have to dominate your life."

Look for small group materials (videos and workbooks) to be available in the coming days. There is also a hard copy of the book if you choose. Be thinking about your small group and who you might invite to participate. The goal is to have everyone involved. It all begins September 24.

Not anxious – at least for now – unless it's a dunk tank 😊 - Pastor Paul

Women's Fall Retreat

This year's Grace/Immanuel Retreat will be held at Grace Lutheran Church in McGregor, MN,
September 30, 2023, 9am-3pm.

(Women attending from Immanuel are asked to bring bars)

Theme: Putting on the Armor of God

Guest Speaker: Tanya Kubinec, USAF Major General, Retired

Major General Kubinec graduated from Hermantown High School in 1989 and is a 1993 Distinguished Graduate of the US Air Force Academy. She earned a Masters Degree in Organizational Management from George Washington University and a Masters in Strategy from Air Command and Staff College. She wore the Air Force uniform for over 33 years, serving in various leadership positions. Her final executive role was a Champion of Developing Resilient Leaders at Headquarters Reserve Command.

Tanya has been married to John for 30 years, who is also a retired AF General. Hanna Grace was born in 2012 after 10 years of infertility and 3 year-long deployment separations. They moved to 15 duty locations as military assignments took them all over the world. John, Tanya and Hanna settled in Georgia where they are active in church and the community. Tanya's hobbies are reading, physical fitness and health and wellness.

Tanya desires to share how God has worked through her life struggles to inspire others to fight and win spiritual battles, walk daily in faith and freedom, and receive all the blessings God has stored up for his people!

SPIRITUAL RESILIENCE LADIES' RETREAT

USAF Maj Gen (retired) Tanya Kubinec

You are invited to hear Tanya, a native of Minnesota, teach powerful Resilience lessons she learned through 33 years of Air Force leadership and Bible study. Tanya will share how her faith led to victory over struggles with deployment related illness, family separations, marital conflicts, infertility, and challenges faced as a devoted Christ follower in the military. Come and be inspired and equipped to fight and win your spiritual battles!

of fun to work together at Immanuel's 2nd largest fundraiser.

We are especially looking for several people to chair the raffle of select items which brings in at least $1000.00 each year. We encourage everyone: men, women, and youth, to contact the "Bizarre Ladies" with questions, ideas, volunteering and your valued support.

We are having a Committee Chair meeting at church in the fellowship room on Monday, September 11th at 6:00 p.m. Everyone is welcome!

God Bless,

Judy Kirchoff 218-820-2802

Nancy Nyvold 612-804-4917

Karen DeBoer 763-442-0577

Handbell practice will be on Tuesdays from 5:30-6:30 p.m. We play regularly during worship services on the second Sunday of the month, and will play for the first time this fall on September 10. Several more ringers have decided to step down, and we are looking for new people to fill our tables. If you would like to join us or are just interested in learning more, please contact Dee Dee Frahm any time at 218-839-3961 or mnfracms@gmail.com

Opportunities Abound!

The summer months have been going by quickly and fall is fast approaching; and that means that on November 11th, 2023 our annual Bazaar is also near. We want to invite new members, as well as current members, to participate in this event. Volunteer opportunities include joining a committee, creating a fall or Christmas craft, decorating and set up and take down, selling raffle tickets, coffee and rolls selling and prep, Christmas wreath making, contributing to the bake sale, children's room (the children's Shop Stop is making a come back) and on it goes! It is a lot

BIBLE STUDIES AT Immanuel

In addition to the Fall Study, Anxious for Nothing, there are also these Bible Study opportunities:

- † Tuesdays, 3:30 p.m., Jan Nordell, Leader
- † Wednesdays, 8am, Nancy Evans, Leader
- † Wednesdays, 10:00 a.m., Phyllis Collignon, Leader

If one of these times for studying God's Word appeals to you, you are more than welcome!

Renewal Group

Our renewal group meets the first and third Tuesdays of the month at 12:00 p.m. The group consists of eight women who have all attended a Via de Cristo weekend. We are currently doing a book and video study by Dr. David Jeremiah entitled "Forward: Discovering God's Presence and Purpose in Your Tomorrow."

QUILTERS

Immanuel Quilters is a group that meets the first and third Tuesdays in Immanuel's fellowship hall from 9am-12pm. We assemble quilts that we donate to Adult and Teen Challenge, the Women's Shelter in Brainerd, and any worthy cause. We also take time to have coffee and chat. If you enjoy quilting, please know that you are invited to come and share your time and talents.

Churchyard

Churchyard leads the music at both services on the first Sunday of the month. The group currently consists of Jane Troge, Wendy Chirhart, Denny Henrichs, and Dave Peterson. We meet for rehearsal weekly on Thursday evenings at 6pm, usually in the fireside room.

HAVE REGRETS HAUNTED YOU?

Contributed by Paula Traylor

Regret is a negative emotion that is usually very painful. It is often closely associated with feelings of guilt and shame, sadness or disappointment over something that has happened, something done or something not done. Such things are in our past and can't be changed. They may have a powerful influence over our lives that can last for minutes, days, years or even a lifetime.

So what can we do? How do we handle this self-focused defeatist emotion? The bible tells us, in 1 John 1:19, we should confess our sins. God doesn't remember our past. HE chooses to let it go and HE wants us to do the same. We can release our fears to God and we can trust that HE will take care of us because HE loves us and HE forgives us. We can expect forgiveness from our Heavenly Father! There is no need to doubt or worry.

We can relieve ourselves of our regrets by giving them to our God. Our regrets are taken from us by

HIS MERCY, GRACE AND LOVE.

Since HE has told us to leave our regrets behind, we must! HE knows what is best for all of us.

Greetings Immanuel Families!

Wow-where is Summer going in such a hurry? I have to remember that it seems it always goes fast, but this year just hit different for me. It's quite possible that renovating an entire home has something to do with feeling this way!

In July, amongst the VBS prep, came a blessed day for youth and their families at the parsonage, as we held our annual "Party and the Parsonage". Complete with boat rides, tubing, fellowship, food, and fun in the sun! Thank you to Pastor Paul and Jill for hosting, as well as our faithful adult youth mentors for always being part of youth programming! We now look forward to our monthly youth gathering at the Nordell residence on Wednesday, August 23rd. Youth Group will resume on Wednesday, September 13th. Confirmation classes will resume on Wednesday, September 20th, with a pre Confirmation orientation -for student grades 7-9, and their parents/guardians on Wednesday, September 6th, at 6:00pm in Fellowship hall. Watch for a postcard mailer!

We celebrated a week in space beginning on Monday, July 31st for VBS-with a unique start to the evening, when the power unexpectedly went out! The remainder of the week was spent enjoying meals as a family, singing, dancing, experimenting, learning, and playing games. Thank you to the many hands and hearts that helped make VBS a success this year! Also, a shout out and thank you to our local meal donors; North Country Café, Mixed Company, and Rafferty's. Keep SHINING JESUS' LIGHT!

Sunday school will resume on Sunday, September 10th, with our annual "Blessing of the Backpacks". Bring your backpack, or other special item for a blessing for the upcoming school year!

It seems culture keep families busier than ever, but take some time to truly pause, reflect, and pray as a family about what you value. Keep God in first position!

A note from the ILC Budget Team:

Just as we have seen increases in goods and services in our every day lives, expenses have gone up at church. Unlike government entities which can raise our taxes or retail services that can raise their prices, the church is dependent on free will offerings to cover its expenses. The numbers on the table above show that giving is substantially below where we had anticipated for this point of the year. Please consider a mid-year boost to your giving to keep the church's operating budget in the black. Thank you for your faithful support.

PRAYERS

COUNCIL BUSINESS

DISCUSSION/QUESTIONS ON THE MINUTES FROM JULY 2023. Minutes approved by Email in July

FINANCIAL STATEMENT AND DISCUSSION: PETER MADE A MOTION, SECONDED BY BONNIE L TO ACCEPT THE JULY FINANANCIAL STATEMENT.

OLD BUSINESS

1. COMMITTEE REPORTS: Personnel- Committee will be updating the employee handbook to reflect the recent changes to MN laws. Cleaning is going quite well using the checklist. Manna for Malawi- had last meeting, everything looks good, volunteer sheet is filling up.

2. FINANCE/BUDGET COMMITTEE- no report

3. VISION TO ACTION: We have not received an official report back, so Pastor Paul and Tom will write up their notes into a report. Four people used the connection card to express interest in moving ahead. We will make one more ask for people who are interested in participating in planning, giving more information on what this would include. After gathering further input from the congregation, we may need to postpone this initiative.

4. DISCUSSION ON ADDITIONAL CHANGES TO SERVICE: Time to share the peace will be added to the services.

5. INSURANCE QUOTES: We received an insurance quote from Church Mutual that is about $6000.00. With our current insurance company, we pay about $9000 per year. Tom will talk with our current company to see if they are able to match this quote.

6. PATH OF HOPE AND GROUNDS UPDATE: We are waiting for bids to be updated before proceeding to start the project in September. Kevin made a motion, seconded by Peter to accept the lowest bid, not to exceed $5000.00. Motion carried unanimously.

NEW BUSINESS....

1. CD ROLLOVER: Kevin made a motion, seconded by David, to reinvest our maturing CDs into 24-month CDs at 5% interest. Motion carried unanimously.

2. DISCUSSION ON VOLUNTEER APPRECIATION: Peter will develop a plan for volunteer recognition and bring to the September council meeting.

TO DO: Develop a transition team for a smooth transition when Pastor Paul retires; review space needs and solutions for Sunday school classrooms by the end of the month.
