Dear Lord, All I have to do is look around to see your greatness displayed. When I slow down from the busyness of life, I notice You more. I hear You in the birds singing and sense Your presence in the gentle wind. I get a glimpse of Your goodness in the miracle of new life. The morning sunrise reminds me of Your mercies that begin fresh every morning. As I go about my day, I will admire how great You are by pausing to enjoy what You created. In the holy name of Your Son Jesus I pray, amen. (prayer contributed)
